Annual Report 2018

For the year ended March 31, 2018

Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd.

The Meiko Group consists of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd. (the “Company”), and its 15 subsidiaries (9 consolidated subsidiaries and 6 non-consolidated subsidiaries) (the “Group”). As the Group’s businesses are primarily in PCB design, manufacturing, sales, and ancillary operations, the description of other businesses is omitted as they are of little significance.

Forward-looking Statements:
This annual report contains forward-looking statements that are based on the information currently available to management, and estimates involving uncertain factors thought likely to have an effect on future results. As such, they include various risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from these projections for a variety of reasons, including changes in business environments, market trends and exchange rate fluctuations relevant to the business of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd.

The forward-looking statements in this section are based on the Group's assumptions as of the end of the current consolidated fiscal year.

(1) Significant accounting policies and estimates

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"). The presentation of these consolidated financial statements requires estimates that affect the selection and application of accounting policies, the reporting amounts of assets, liabilities, profits and expenses and the disclosure thereof. The management has assessed those estimates in view of past results and reasonable assumptions, however, actual results may differ from the estimates presented due to uncertainties that are intrinsic to estimates.

(2) Analysis of the Group's financial position

Current assets

Current assets as of March 31, 2018 were ¥56,791 million, up ¥2,390 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. This change mainly comprised a decrease of ¥2,006 million in cash and cash equivalents, an increase of ¥2,876 million in trade notes and accounts receivable, and an increase of ¥1,769 million in inventories.

Non-current assets

Non-current assets as of March 31, 2018 were ¥53,794 million, up ¥4,617 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. Major factors for this increase were a ¥3,978 million increase in property, plant and equipment and a ¥649 million increase in investments and other assets.

Current liabilities

Current liabilities as of March 31, 2018 were ¥48,925 million, up ¥3,920 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. This change mainly consisted of a ¥2,957 million increase in trade notes and accounts payable, a ¥971 million increase in short-term borrowings, a ¥1,845 million decrease in the current portion of long-term borrowings, and a ¥1,998 million increase in other.

Non-current liabilities

Non-current liabilities as of March 31, 2018 were ¥28,618 million, down ¥1,415 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. The major factors in this decrease were ¥590 million in long-term borrowings and ¥666 million in lease obligations.

Net assets

Net assets as of March 31, 2018 were ¥33,042 million, up ¥4,502 million from the end of the previous fiscal year. This mainly reflected a ¥3,468 million increase in retained earnings, and a ¥1,074 million increase in foreign currency translation adjustments.

(3) Analysis of business results

1) Net sales

The Group's net sales for the fiscal year under review increased ¥12,630 million, or 13.2%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥108,542 million primarily due to robust sales of PCBs (printed circuit boards) for automotive products caused by vehicle-related demand led by the use of electronics in vehicles and automatic driving and driver assistance, as well as favorable sales of PCBs for smartphones mainly in emerging markets.

2) Cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses

Cost of sales increased ¥10,289 million, or 12.9%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥90,115 million. This reflected efforts in raising productivity by improvements in product yields, despite a surge in raw materials prices. As a result, gross profit increased ¥2,341 million, or 14.6%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥18,427 million. The gross margin increased 0.2 percentage points, from the previous fiscal year to 17.0%.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased ¥672 million, or 6.5%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥10,970 million due to an increase in selling expenses on the back of increased sales.

3) Operating income

Operating income increased ¥1,669 million, or 28.8%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥7,457 million, mainly due to increased sales, with an operating margin of 6.9%, up 0.9 percentage points, from the previous fiscal year.

4) Non-operating income and non-operating expenses

Non-operating income increased ¥705 million from the previous fiscal year to ¥1,081 million primarily due to an increase in insurance income.

Non-operating expenses increased ¥559 million from the previous fiscal year to ¥3,742 million, mainly due to an increase in foreign exchange losses.

5) Ordinary income

Ordinary income increased ¥1,815 million, or 60.9%, from the previous fiscal year to ¥4,796 million, primarily due to the posting of higher operating income.

6) Extraordinary income (losses)

Extraordinary income was ¥345 million. This reflected the recording of a gain on sales of investment securities of ¥182 million for the fiscal year under review.

Extraordinary losses increased ¥41 million from the previous fiscal year to ¥297 million. This primarily reflected the recording of a net loss on sales and disposal of property, plant and equipment of ¥194 million for the fiscal year under review.

7) Profit attributable to owners of parent

The total amount of income taxes–current and income taxes–deferred decreased ¥443 million from the previous fiscal year to ¥497 million.

As a result of the above, the profit attributable to owners of parent was ¥4,373 million, up 147.5% compared with the previous fiscal year.

(4) Analysis of source of funds and liquidity

1) Cash flows

Cash and cash equivalents (hereafter, “net cash”) as of March 31, 2018 decreased ¥2,006 million from the previous fiscal year, to ¥15,190 million.

Cash flows of each category and their causes during the consolidated fiscal year ended March 31, 2018 were as follows.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the fiscal year under review was ¥10,429 million, down ¥1,183 million from the previous fiscal year. Increases were mainly from profit before income taxes of ¥4,844 million, depreciation and amortization of ¥5,816 million and an increase in trade notes and accounts payable of 2,884 million. The major decreases were an increase in trade notes and accounts receivable of ¥3,464 million and an increase in inventories of ¥1,949 million.

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥8,868 million, up ¥4,546 million from the previous fiscal year. The major outflow was ¥8,381 million for the purchase of property, plant and equipment.

Net cash used in financing activities was ¥3,531 million, down ¥5,499 million from the previous fiscal year. The major outflows comprised repayments of long-term borrowings of ¥12,273 million, and repayments of lease obligations of ¥1,392 million. The major inflow comprised proceeds from long-term borrowings of ¥10,017 million.

Trends in cash flow indicators of the Group are as follows:

Equity ratio (%)	26.0	27.3	29.9
Market value equity ratio (%)	8.2	22.2	43.2
Cash flows versus Interest-bearing debt ratio (years)	6.1	4.5	4.9
Interest coverage ratio (times)	7.8	8.8	8.8

Equity ratio = Equity capital / Total assets

Market value equity ratio = Stock market capitalization / Total assets

Cash flow versus interest-bearing debt ratio = Interest-bearing debt / Operating cash flow

Interest coverage ratio = Operating cash flow / Interest payment

Notes:

1. Each indicator is calculated based on consolidated financial values.
2. The stock market capitalization is calculated as follows: term-end closing stock price x term-end number of shares issued (after deducting shares of treasury stock). Common stocks are subject to the calculation.
3. The operating cash flow represents the cash flow provided by (used in) operating activities as indicated in the consolidated statements of cash flows. Of the liabilities posted on the consolidated balance sheets, the interest-bearing debt covers all the liabilities for which interest was paid. The interest payment represents the payment of interest indicated in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

2) Financial policy

The Group procures funds for its operations from funds on hand or borrowings from financial institutions. The Group has a policy of procuring funds for investment and loans as well as funds to acquire manufacturing equipment inside and outside Japan via long-term borrowings from financial institutions. With regard to procuring such funds and the conditions of procurement, the Group strives to select the most favorable timing and conditions.

Business Risks

Below are some of the major risks from among those described in the securities report (provided/filed in Japanese only) which may significantly affect any decisions made by investors.
Forward-looking statements are based on the Group's best judgment during the consolidated fiscal year under review.

(1) The Group's major customers' business performance

The Group's major customers are manufacturers of automobile electronic control equipment, communications equipment and devices, digital household appliances, and personal computers, among others. The Group's major business is the manufacture and sale of PCBs, which are parts that constitute a core function of finished products. Should a natural disaster or global economic turmoil occur and thus adversely impact the markets of the industries in which the Group's major customers operate, or lead to sluggish sales of their finished products, such factors could impact the volume of orders received by the Group and affect the Group's business performance.

(2) Risks related to the timing of capital investments

The Group conducts appropriate capital investment to enhance productivity and maintain product competitiveness. Although overseas and domestic capital investments are carefully determined considering brand manufacturers' business performance and market trends, should manufacturers change strategies or the Group's capital investments become excessive upon a downturn in the economy, or the operation of new facilities be delayed, factors such as the burden of depreciation costs could adversely affect the Group's business results and financial position.

(3) Possibility of product defects

PCBs are mounted with electronic components and then embedded in finished products by brand manufacturers. The Group manufactures PCBs in compliance with globally accepted quality control standards. In addition, brand manufacturers conduct inspections upon receipt of the finished product checking for product defects. However, should a large-scale recall or a product liability claim occur, such an incident would incur significant costs and harm the value of our corporate brand, which could adversely affect the Group's performance.

(4) Technological development and price competition

Although the Group expects long-term expansion of demand for PCBs due to the worldwide spread of digital household appliances and the further advancement of electronic automobile components, to address intensifying global competition stemming from downward pressure on prices from Southeast Asia, Japanese manufacturers need to differentiate their products by adding more value. To this end, the Group is developing technologies such as element technologies to make wires thinner and hole diameters smaller, as well as cost-reduction technologies. However, should such technologies diverge from market needs and not be accepted, the Group may get embroiled in a price war, which could affect its business performance.

(5) Impact of disasters

The Group's major manufacturing bases are the Fukushima Factory, the Yamagata Factory (Yamagata Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd.) and the Ishinomaki Branch Factory (Yamagata Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd.), which are all located in the Tohoku region. The Group endeavors to prevent damage from natural disasters by securing the safety of its employees and protecting facilities against earthquakes and tsunami. However, the Great East Japan Earthquake and subsequent tsunami, which were beyond our capability to predict, seriously affected the Group's business performance. Should a disaster of that scale occur in the future, it could adversely affect the Company's business performance again, despite the fact that we reviewed our risk management system following the disaster.

In addition, although the Group conducts regular inspections and maintenance works on its production equipment in manufacturing bases inside and outside Japan and strives to minimize the occurrence of fire, equipment failures, accidents, etc. which may result in the suspension of line operations, there is no guarantee that these will be prevented or reduced completely.

Should production and shipping be suspended for a long period of time due to these factors, the Group's business performance and financial position could be adversely affected.

(6) Potential risks inherent in plant operations in China and Vietnam

To expand productivity and reduce production costs, the Group has established local corporations in Hong Kong, Guangzhou and Wuhan in China, and in Vietnam, conducting manufacturing and sales activities.

The following difficulties might occur in these countries:

1: Hygiene-related issues such as infectious diseases
2: Change or introduction of environmental regulations, legal restrictions and the tax system
3: Failure of infrastructure such as electricity, water and transportation
4: Political uncertainty and public security-related issues
5: Anti-Japanese demonstrations and/or labor disputes

Should unexpected events such as changes in the political or legal environment, economic situation or environmental regulations occur, the Group's business performance and financial position could be adversely affected as a result of the issues which might arise in the management of production facilities and equipment and in the execution of other operations, or a large amount of liabilities or obligations associated with the compliance of environmental conservation and other regulations.

(7) Foreign currency exchange rate fluctuation risk

To operate plants in China and Vietnam, we need to hold U.S. dollars and other foreign currency-denominated assets. Therefore, the Group is exposed to yen-to-yuan and yen-to-U.S. dollar exchange rate fluctuations. These fluctuations could result in losses.

(8) Raw materials market fluctuation risk

The Group purchases the raw materials necessary for manufacturing from external materials manufacturers and trading companies. The surge in prices of crude oil, copper, gold, etc., could influence the prices of the raw materials the Group purchases and adversely affect the Group's business performance and financial position.

(9) Financial risks

The Group has made aggressive capital investments of amounts higher than the funds it has acquired from operating activities to prepare for the anticipated medium- and long-term increase in demand for digital household appliances and automobiles, as well as responses to new products in line with technological innovation.

As a result, the ratio of borrowings to total assets as of March 31, 2018, was 42.5%. Should we make further aggressive capital investments to fulfill our business strategies, an increase in borrowings and/or interest rates could affect the Group's business performance and financial position.

(10) Intellectual property rights

The Group recognizes intellectual properties as its significant management resources and seeks to acquire intellectual property rights by applying for patents, etc. for proprietary technologies, etc. developed by the Group with the aim of protecting intellectual properties. However, not all applications may be approved and it is also possible that obtained rights may be rendered void due to objections by third parties.

Although the Company's responsible department manages obtained intellectual properties and pays attention to violation of rights by external parties, anticipated profits could be lost in the event of illegal use, etc.

Meanwhile, should a lawsuit be filed against the Group with regard to a violation of intellectual property rights of third parties, the Group's business performance and financial position could be adversely affected as a result of the compensation or damages paid to customers due to the suspension of production and payment of license fees, etc., related to patent use in order to resume production.

(11) Risks associated with production activities

The Group may continue to build new plants or establish new production lines in order to expand its production capacity in the future in accordance with demand of major customers around the world. However, should such construction works be delayed or new production lines not launched smoothly, it could result in a delay in delivery of products to customers or a decline in plant productivity, and the subsequent drop in sales might adversely affect the Group's business performance.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd. and Consolidated Subsidiaries
For the Years ended March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016

1. Basis of Presenting Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd. (the "Company") have been prepared in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Financial Instruments and Exchange Law of Japan and its related accounting regulations, and in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"), which are different in certain respects as to application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards.
In preparing the accompanying consolidated financial statements, certain reclassifications and rearrangements have been made to present them in a form which is more familiar to readers outside Japan.
In addition, the notes to the consolidated financial statements include information which is not required under Japanese GAAP, but is presented herein as additional information.
The consolidated financial statements are denominated in Japanese yen, the currency of the country in which the Company is incorporated and operates. The translation of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts is included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan and have been made at the rate of ¥106.25 to $1, the approximate rate of exchange at March 31, 2018. Such translation should not be construed as representation that the Japanese yen amounts could be converted into U.S. dollars at that or any other rate of exchange.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.

(a) Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its significant 9 subsidiaries (together, the "Group").
All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated.
In the elimination of investments in subsidiaries, the assets and liabilities of the subsidiaries, including the portion attributable to minority shareholders, are recorded based on the fair value at the time the Company acquired control of the respective subsidiaries. Investments in certain unconsolidated subsidiaries are accounted for by cost method due to immateriality in view of consolidation.
M.D. Systems Co., Ltd. has been excluded from the scope of consolidation due to sales of a part of shares and also MDS Circuit Technology, Inc., a subsidiary of M.D. Systems Co., Ltd., has been excluded from the scope of consolidation.
Guangzhou Meiko PCB Co., Ltd. has been excluded from the scope of consolidation due to liquidation.

(b) Equity Method

Investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates are accounted for by the equity method. However, certain investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates are not accounted for by the equity method and are stated at cost because the effect of their net income or losses and retained earnings on the accompanying consolidated financial statements is immaterial.

(c) Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are short-term investments that are readily convertible into cash and that are exposed to insignificant risk of changes in value. Cash equivalents include time deposits which matures or becomes due within three months of the date of acquisition.

(d) Translation of Foreign Currency Accounts

Current and non-current receivables and payables in foreign currencies are translated at current rates prevailing at the balance sheet date and the resulting exchange gains or losses are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations.
Financial statements of consolidated overseas subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen at the exchange rate at the balance sheet date, except that shareholders' equity accounts are translated at historical rates and statement of income items resulting from transactions with the Company at the rates used by the Company.
Foreign currency translation adjustments resulting from translation of foreign currency financial statements prepared by consolidated overseas subsidiaries are presented in net assets in the consolidated balance sheets.

(e) Inventories

Inventories are stated at cost, determined by the first-in-first-out method. However, they are written down based on decreased profitability where appropriate.

(f) Depreciation and Amortization (excluding leased assets)

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment for the Company and its domestic subsidiaries is computed mainly by the declining-balance method. Buildings (excluding facilities attached to buildings), which were acquired since April 1, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and structures, which were acquired on or after April 1, 2016 are computed by the straight-line method.
Certain buildings and property, plant and equipments for overseas subsidiaries are computed by the straight-line method.
The ranges of useful lives are summarized as follows:

Buildings and structures	2 - 47 years
Machinery and vehicles	2 - 10 years

Software for company use is carried at cost less accumulated amortization, which is calculated by the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives (five years).

(Change in accounting policies)
Due to amendments to the Japanese Corporation Tax Act, the Company and its domestic subsidiaries adopted "Practical Solution on a change in depreciation method due to Tax Reform 2016" (Practice Issue Task Force No.32, June 17, 2016 (hereinafter, "PITF No.32")) from the current fiscal year and changed the depreciation method for buildings, facilities attached to buildings and structures, which were acquired since April 1, 2016, from the declining balance method to the straight-line method.
The impact of this change on profit or loss for the year ended March 31, 2017, was immaterial.

(Change in accounting estimates)
The useful lives of machinery of the Company and consolidated domestic subsidiaries were fundamentally reviewed upon renewal of machineries for the purpose of more suited depreciation which reflect the actual situation of use.
Accordingly, useful lives were changed from 6 to 10 years from the year ended March 31, 2016. As a result of this change, operating income increased by ¥117 million and loss before income taxes decreased by the same amounts for the year ended March 31, 2016.

(g) Leased assets

Leased property under finance lease arrangements which transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee is depreciated in the same method as the one applied to property, plant and equipment owned by the Company.
Leased property under finance lease arrangements which do not transfer ownership of the leased property to the lessee is capitalized to recognize leased assets and lease obligations in the balance sheets and depreciated over the lease term of the respective assets with zero residual value.

(h) Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries provide for doubtful accounts principally at an amount computed based on the historical bad debt ratio during a certain reference period plus an estimated uncollectible amount based on the analysis of certain individual accounts including claims in bankruptcy.

(i) Accrued Bonuses

Accrued bonuses to employees are provided for the estimated amounts, which the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries are obligated to pay to employees after the fiscal year-end based on services rendered during the current fiscal year.

(j) Accrued bonuses to directors

The Company provides allowance for directors' accrued bonuses based on the estimated amounts at the balance sheet date.

(k) Impairment Losses on Fixed Assets

The Group reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstance indicate the carrying amount of an asset or asset group may not be recoverable. An impairment loss would be recognized if the carrying amount of an asset or asset group exceeds the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows expected to result from the continued use and eventual disposition of the asset or asset group. The impairment loss would be measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable amount, which is higher of asset's or cash-generating unit's fair value less costs to sell and its value in use.

(l) Investment Securities

The Company has classified all the equity securities as available-for-sale securities based on management's intention. Available-for-sale securities other than non-marketable are reported at fair value with unrealized gains or losses, net of applicable taxes, reported in a separate component of net assets.
Non-marketable available-for-sale securities are stated at cost determined by the moving-average method.

(m) Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes is computed based on the pretax income included in the consolidated statements of operations. The asset and liability approach is used to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities. Deferred tax assets are measured by applying currently enacted tax laws to the temporary differences.

(n) Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group uses foreign currency forward contracts, interest rate swaps, currency swaps and copper price swaps as a means of hedging exposure to foreign currencies, interest risks and market fluctuation. The Group does not enter into derivatives for trading or speculative purposes. Derivative financial instruments are classified and accounted for as follows: a) all derivatives are recognized as either assets or liabilities and measured at fair value, and gains or losses on transactions arising from derivative except for hedge purposes are recognized in the consolidated statements of operations and b) for derivatives used for hedging purposes, if derivatives qualify for hedge accounting because of high correlation and effectiveness between the hedging instruments and the hedged items, gains or losses on derivatives are deferred until maturity of the hedged transactions.
However, if the foreign currency forward contracts qualify for hedge accounting, hedged items such as foreign currency receivables and payables are translated at the contracted rates.
Also, if interest rate swap contracts are used as hedge and meet certain criteria, the net amount to be paid or received under the swap contract is added to or deducted from the interest on the assets or liabilities for which the swap contract was executed.
For currency swaps that qualify for hedge accounting, gain or loss is translated at the exchange rate stipulated in the contract under the allocation method.

(o) Retirement Benefits for Employees

The benefit formula method is used as a method of attributing expected benefits to the periods through the end of the fiscal year in calculating projected benefit obligation.
Actuarial gain or loss is amortized using the declining balance method over 10 years, which is less than the average remaining years of service of the employees, and the amortization will be started in the following year in which the gain or loss is recognized.
Past service cost is amortized using the straight-line method over 10 years, which is less than the average remaining years of service of the employees.
Certain consolidated subsidiaries apply the simplified method in which the retirement benefit amount required for voluntary termination at year-end is deemed a projected benefit obligation for the calculation of liability associated with retirement and retirement benefit expenses.

(p) Provision for Directors' Retirement Benefits

The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries account for the provision for directors' retirement benefits at balance sheet date in accordance with internal regulations.

(q) Appropriations of Retained Earnings

Appropriations of retained earnings are reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements for the following year upon shareholders' approval.

(r) Per Share Information

Dividends per share shown in the consolidated statements of operations have been presented on an accrual basis and include, in each fiscal period, dividends approved after each balance sheet date, but applicable to the fiscal period then ended.
Net income (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period.
The diluted net income per share is omitted as the Company was in net loss for the years ended March 31, 2016.

(s) Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for Consolidated Financial Statements

The Accounting Standards Board of Japan has issued ASBJ Practical Issues Task Force No. 18 “Practical Solution on Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for Consolidated Financial Statements” (“PITF No. 18”). PITF No. 18 requires that accounting policies and procedures applied by a parent company and its subsidiaries to similar transactions and events under similar circumstances should, in principle, be unified for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements.
PITF No. 18, however, as a tentative measure, allows a parent company to prepare consolidated financial statements using foreign subsidiaries’ financial statements prepared in accordance with either International Financial Reporting Standards or U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. In this case, adjustments for the following four items are required in the consolidation process so that their impacts on net income are accounted for in accordance with Japanese GAAP unless the impact is not material.
(1) Goodwill not subjected to amortization
(2) Actuarial gains and losses of defined benefit plans recognized outside profit or loss
(3) Capitalized expenditures for research and development activities
(4) Fair value measurement of investment properties, and revaluation of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets

(t) Application of “Revised Accounting Standards regarding Business Combinations”

The Company and its domestic subsidiaries adopted “Revised Accounting Standard for Business Combinations” (ASBJ Statement No.21, September 13, 2013 (hereinafter, “Statement No.21”)), “Revised Accounting Standard for Consolidated Financial Statements” (ASBJ Statement No.22, September 13, 2013 (hereinafter, “Statement No.22”)) and “Revised Accounting Standard for Business Divestitures” (ASBJ Statement No.7, September 13, 2013 (hereinafter, “Statement No.7”)) (together, the “Business Combination Accounting Standards”) from the year ending 2016. As a result, the Company changed its accounting policies to recognize in capital surplus the differences arising from changes in the Company’s ownership interest of subsidiaries over which the Company continues to maintain control and to record acquisition related costs as expenses in the fiscal year in which the costs are incurred.
In addition, the Company changed its accounting policy for the reallocation of acquisition costs due to the completion following provisional accounting to reflect such reallocation in the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year in which the business combination took place.
The Company also changed the presentation of net income and of the term “non-controlling interests” is used instead of “minority interests”. Certain amounts in the prior year comparative information were reclassified to conform to such changes in the year ending 2016 presentation.
With regard to the application of the Business Combination Accounting Standards, the Company followed the provisional treatments in article 58-2 (3) of Statement No.21, article 44-5 (3) of Statement No.22 and article 57-4 (3) of Statement No.7 and recognized in capital surplus or retained earnings the cumulative effect as of the beginning of the year ending 2016 that resulted from the retrospective application of the new accounting policies for all of the previous fiscal years.
As a result of these changes, capital surplus as of March 31, 2016 decreased by ¥64 million.
In the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash flows from acquisition or disposal of shares of subsidiaries with no changes in the scope of consolidation are included in “Cash flows from financing activities”.
The effects on earnings per share are immaterial.

(u) Accounting Standards and Guidance Issued but Not Yet Adopted

The following new standards and guidance have been issued but are not effective for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 and have not been adopted early:
“Implementation Guidance on Tax Effect Accounting” (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, February 16, 2018) and “Implementation Guidance on Recoverability of Deferred Tax Assets” (ASBJ Guidance No. 26 (revised 2018), February 16, 2018)
(1) Overview
The above guidance was revised in regard to the treatments for taxable temporary differences for investments in subsidiaries within the context of non-consolidated financial statements, and to clarify the treatments in determining recoverability of deferred tax assets in a company which was categorized as 'Type 1' according to the guidance.
(2) Effective date
Effective from the beginning of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2019.
(3) Impact of the adoption of the guidance
The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries are currently in the process of determining the impact of these new guidance on the consolidated financial statements.

“Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition” (ASBJ Statement No. 29, March 30, 2018) and “Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition” (ASBJ Guidance No. 30, March 30, 2018)
(1) Overview
The above standard and guidance provide comprehensive principles for revenue recognition. Under the standard and guidance, revenue is recognized by applying following 5 steps:
Step 1: Identify contract(s) with customers.
Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract.
Step 3: Determine the transaction price.
Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation in the contract.
Step 5; Recognize revenue when (or as) the entity satisfies a performance obligation.
(2) Effective date
Effective from the beginning of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2022.
(3) Impact of the adoption of the standard and guidance
The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries are currently in the process of determining the impact of the new standard and guidance on the consolidated financial statements.

6. Retirement Benefits

The Company and some of its consolidated subsidiaries provide a lump-sum retirement plan as defined benefit pension plan for employees' retirement benefits.
Certain consolidated subsidiaries apply the simplified method in computing net defined benefit liability and benefit costs for their lump-sum retirement plans.
In addition to the above, until March 31, 2017, the Company and certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries also used to contribute to a multi-employer pension plan (the Social Welfare Pension Fund of Nippon Electronic Circuits (the "Fund")), however, the Fund dissolved on March 31, 2017. To compensate for the benefits from the Fund, the retirement benefits policy was revised and the calculation method of the basis for the retirement benefits was changed as of April 1, 2017.
Also, an optional defined contribution plan was implemented as of April 1, 2017 which became to be regarded as part of the retirement benefits policy.

Multi-employer pension plan

The amount required to contribute to the multi-employer pension plan which is accounted for in the same way as defined contribution plans is ¥45 million for the year ended March 31, 2017.
The Social Welfare Pension Fund of Nippon Electronic Circuits (the "Fund") that the Company and certain domestic consolidated subsidiaries had joined dissolved on March 31, 2017 under the approval of Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare. Accordingly, it is under liquidation process as of March 31, 2018.
No additional burdens to the Company are expected in relation to the dissolution of the Fund.
The latest funded status, contribution share ratio of the Company and supplementary information is omitted, since the Fund is under liquidation process.

Defined contribution plan

The amount required to contribute to the defined contribution plans is ¥156 million ($1,465 thousand) for the year ended March 31, 2018.

7. Net assets

Under the Japanese Corporation Law ("the Law") and regulations, the entire amount paid for new shares is required to be designated as capital stock. However, a company may, by a resolution of the Board of Directors, designate an amount not exceeding one-half of the price of the new shares as additional paid-in capital, which is included in capital surplus.

In cases where dividend distribution of surplus is made, the smaller of an amount equal to 10% of the dividend or the excess, if any, of 25% of capital stock over the total of additional paid-in capital and legal earnings reserve must be set aside as additional paid-in capital or legal earnings reserve. Legal earnings reserve is included in retained earnings in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.
Additional paid-in capital and legal earnings reserve may not be distributed as dividends. However, all additional paid-in capital and all legal earnings reserve may be transferred to other capital surplus and retained earnings, respectively, which are potentially available for dividends.
The maximum amount that the Company can distribute as dividends is calculated based on the non-consolidated financial statements of the Company in accordance with the Law.

8. Impairment loss

Details of impairment losses recognized for the years ended March 31, 2018 and 2017 are omitted due to their immateriality.

Impairment losses recognized for the year ended March 31, 2016 are as follows:

Use	Type of assets	Location		Millions of yen 2016
Business assets	Buildings and structures and Machinery and vehicles, etc.	Ishinomaki, Miyagi, Japan	¥	998
Business assets	Buildings and structures and Machinery and vehicles, etc.	Hanoi, Vietnam		6,980
Total			¥	7,978

The Group carries out grouping mainly based on each plant for business assets.
For the year ended March 31, 2016, the Group recognized impairment losses of ¥7,978 million due to decline in profitability, which resulted in decreasing the book values of such assets to recoverable amounts.
Impairment losses comprise of ¥3,161 million for Buildings and structures, ¥3,327 million for Machinery and vehicles, ¥837 million for Construction in progress, ¥213 million for Land and ¥440 million for others.
The recoverable value of this assets group was measured based on the higher of net selling price or the value in use.
The net selling price was computed based on the fixed asset tax valuation with reasonable adjustments.
The value in use was computed based on the future cash flow discounted at 14.0%.

13. Financial Instruments

(a) Qualitative information on financial instruments

(1) Policies for using financial instruments

The Group finances necessary funds mainly through bank loans according to the capital investment plan for the production and sales of PCB.
Temporary and excessive funds are operated by highly stable financial instruments and the Group finances short-term operating capital by bank loans.
Derivative transactions are only utilized to hedge the risks mentioned in (2) below.

(2) Details of financial instruments used and exposures to risk and how they arise

Operating receivables such as trade notes and accounts receivable are exposed to credit risk. Some operating receivables, which are denominated in foreign currencies due to global operations, are exposed to foreign currency fluctuation risk. The Group might utilize foreign exchange forward contracts if necessary except for those within the range of the operating payables dominated in the same foreign currency. Investments securities mainly consist of securities of companies in which a business relationship has been established and they are exposed to market fluctuation risk.

Operating payables such as trade notes and accounts payable are due within one year.
Some of the operating payables relating to imports of raw materials are dominated in foreign currencies and are exposed to foreign currency fluctuation risk.
The Group might utilize foreign exchange forward contracts if necessary except for those within the range of the operating receivables dominated in the same foreign currency.
Loans and lease obligations for finance lease transactions are mainly used for the purpose of financing capital investments.
Some of them are variable interest loans and are exposed to interest and foreign currency fluctuation risk.
The Group utilizes interest rate swaps and currency swaps to hedge the risk. Regarding derivative transactions, the Group utilizes foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge foreign currency fluctuation risk of receivables and payables dominated in foreign currencies. The Group utilizes interest rate swaps and currency swaps to hedge interest fluctuation risk. The Group utilizes commodity forward contracts to hedge copper price fluctuation risk.

(3) Policies and processes for managing the risk

(i) Credit risk management (risk of default by the counterparties)

The sales management department in the Company follows sales management rules, monitors the customers’ credit conditions periodically and manages the due date and balance per customer. The Company keeps track of the adverse financial conditions of its customers in the early stage to mitigate the uncollectible risk.
The Company enters into derivative transactions only with the credit worthy financial institutions to mitigate the credit risk.

(ii) Market risk management (risk of foreign currency fluctuations and interests)

Regarding the trade receivables and trade payables dominated in foreign currencies, the Company utilizes foreign exchange forward contracts if necessary to hedge the foreign currency fluctuation risk, which is controlled by each currency and on a monthly basis. For investment securities, the Company regularly reviews the fair value and issuers' financial condition and readjust Company's portfolio on an ongoing basis considering the business relationship with counterparties. Derivative transactions are based on the internal rules and executed after getting the approval from the approver and managed by Finance Dept. Contents of the derivative transactions are reported to Board of Directors' meeting periodically.

(iii) Liquidity risk management (risk of default at the due dates)

The Company prepares and updates the cash management plan based on the reports from each department to manage liquidity risk on a timely basis.

(4) Supplemental information on fair values

As well as the values based on market prices, fair values of financial instruments include values which are reasonably calculated in case market prices do not exist.
As the calculation of those values adopts certain assumptions, those values may vary in case different assumptions are applied.
Also, for the contract amount regarding derivative transactions described in Note 14, the contract amount itself does not indicate market risk related to derivative transactions.

(b) Fair values of financial instruments

Book values of the financial instruments included in the consolidated balance sheets and their fair values at March 31, 2018 and 2017 are as follows:

The financial instruments whose fair value is extremely difficult to determine are not included above.

Derivative financial instruments are stated in net of assets and liabilities. The figures in parenthesis indicate net liabilities.

(1) Valuation method of the fair value of financial instruments and information of investment securities and derivative transactions

(i). Cash and cash equivalents, (ii). Time deposits, (iii). Trade notes and accounts receivable

The carrying value is deemed as the fair value since it is scheduled to be settled in a short period of time.

(iv). Investment securities

Fair value of equity securities is based on the quoted price on stock exchange. Please refer to Note 3 regarding the information of the fair value for the investment in securities by classification.

(v). Trade notes and accounts payable, (vi) Short-term borrowings

The carrying value is deemed as the fair value since it is scheduled to be settled in a short period of time.

(vii). Long-term borrowings, (viii). Lease obligations

The fair values are measured as the net present value of estimated future cash flows by discounting the principal and interest value using the loan interest rate applied to the new loans or the lease contracts. If the variable interest rate loans meet certain criteria for the short cut method for interest rate swaps (If interest rate swap contracts are used as a hedge and meet certain hedging criteria, the interest rate swaps are not remeasured at market price and the amount to be received under the interest rate swap contract is added to or deducted from the interest on the liabilities for which the swap contract was executed.) and for the allocation method for currency swaps, the sum of principal and the interest processed as interest rate swaps and currency swaps are discounted by using the reasonably estimated loan interest rate applied to the same kind of loans.

Please refer to Note 14.

(2) Unlisted securities of ¥216 million yen ($2,039 thousand) as of March 31, 2018 and ¥141 million yen as of March 31, 2017 are not included in the above table because the securities do not have fair market values and it is extremely difficult to estimate fair values.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd. and its consolidated subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as at March 31, 2018 and 2017, and the consolidated statements of operations for the years ended March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, the consolidated statements of comprehensive income for the years ended March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, the consolidated statements of changes in net assets and statements of cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the financial statement audit is not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Meiko Electronics Co., Ltd. and its consolidated subsidiaries as at March 31, 2018 and 2017, and their financial performance and cash flows for the years ended March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Emphasis of Matter

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to the following:

As discussed in Note 20 "Significant Subsequent Events" to the consolidated financial statements, the company has acquired and canceled the entire Class A Preferred Stock on April 2, 2018 and June 26, 2018.

KPMG

Convenience Translation

The U.S. dollar amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements with respect to the year ended March 31, 2018 are presented solely for convenience. Our audit also included the translation of yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made on the basis described in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.
